Dear Sir/Madam: I formally request a rehearing and to be made whole prior to this mishap.

1. I called Daryl McCloskey to ask him for a continuation because the mailbox where I received my mail signed for the certified mail before I actually had possession. While on the phone with Daryl he emailed Eveyln Pattee & myself of my intentions.
   February 24 2020 2:16 pm ref email From Frederick Britton to Daryl McCloskey to Eveyln Pattee & Frederick Britton

2. February 24 2020 2:26 pm I called Evelyn explaining the situation regarding the mail. While on the phone before the call was made to Karrissa Neff with (me on hold) We had a deal. The email was sent to her while on the phone requesting a continuance Feb 24, 2020 3;19 pm.

3. There was no active ill will on my part .
4. I made the formal request. I should be reheared.
5. I may have forgotten to include the case #'s by accident but the request was made and i should have gotten a phone call or correspondence something the same day or the next day alerting of the error.

Thanks Frederick Birtton

Mr. Britton,

I spoke with the Real Estate Division regarding your request for a continuance on both cases the Division intends to bring against you beginning on March 10th before the Real Estate Commission. You will need to send a written request for the continuance directly to the Real Estate Division. The person you need to contact and request the continuance from in writing is as follows:

Good morning Mr. Britton,

I just heard from Karissa that you spoke to her regarding a continuance which she has no problem with, nor does the Division. Please just send me an email requesting the continuance and reference both case numbers like I told you yesterday and mention the reason, that you need more time to prepare.

As soon as I get your official request for continuance, I will forward it to the Secretary of the Commission for approval.

Thank you.
